

—On the first page of the BANNER will be found a tolerably accurate census of the real estate owners or "freeholders" of Morris County, taken by John Ford, Sheriff, in August, 1752, on an order by the Supreme Court. There are 435 names, and five townships, and the list will be found very interesting as proving the fact that real property in its descent from father to son is more substantial than any other kind. Many of the descendants of these property owners of nearly a century and a half ago now owning the acres that were the pride of their ancestors.

LIST OF FREEHOLDERS OF MORRIS COUNTY.

A LIST OF SEVERAL FREEHOLDERS IN THE COUNTY OF MORRIS AS FAIR AS TIME WOULD PERMIT, TAKEN BY VIRTUE OF A RULE OF THE SUPREME COURT BY JOHN FORD, SHERIFF OF THE COUNTY OF MORRIS, THIS THIRTIETH FIRST DAY OF AUGUST, A. D. 1752.
